CONTROL ROOMS & ENGINEERING

Our team has decades of experience creating solutions and supporting shows across genres, including talk shows, cooking shows, sitcoms, live performances, reality and more.

EXPERIENCED LEADERS

By employing technical and engineering experts in the industry, we match our skills to the needs of our client.

INNOVATIVE THINKING

Combining our technical expertise and insights with the latest technology, we provide solutions for all types of content.

FLEXIBLE SOLUTIONS

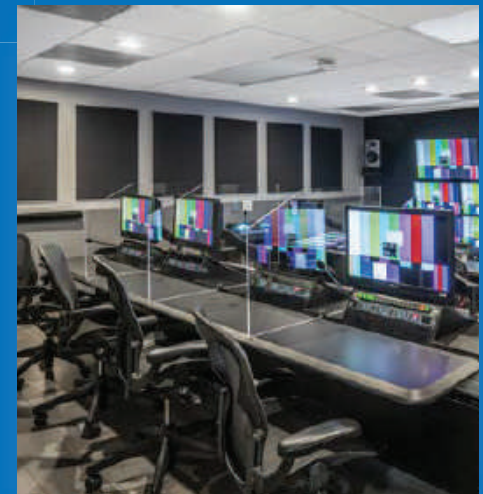

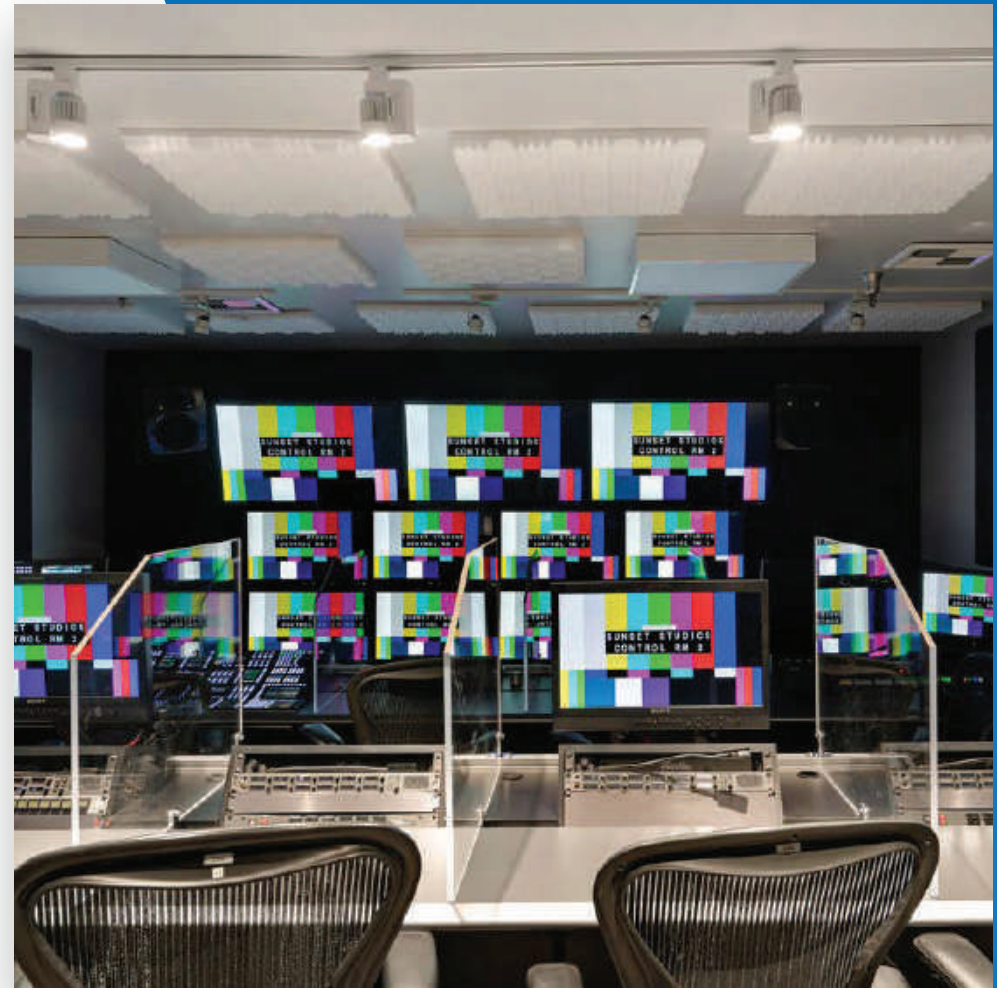

We know that no two productions are alike, so we can tailor large or small solutions, customized to fit a project's unique needs.

TURNKEY RESOURCES

Our control room facilities and equipment inventory are fully equipped and built out to accommodate a variety of productions.

STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIPS

Through a partnership with All Mobile Video (AMV), we offer enhanced technical services by providing a larger variety of equipment options and engineering support for our clients. From transmission and live stream capabilities, production mobile units to portable flypacks with a large inventory of equipment rental choices, we can meet all your production requirements.

OFFICES

Sunset Studios understands that the creative community needs to have all the right conveniences to set minds free to create. No obstacles, only inspiring choices. That's why we have designed numerous offices with a wide range of styles, from standard production offices to modern bow truss creative spaces with all the bells and whistles you are accustomed to.

EXECUTIVE OFFICES

High-end, beautifully appointed executive offices.

PRODUCTION OFFICES

We like to consider our offices part of the creative team because, well, they're here to help get the juices flowing. We not only have script-reading spaces and multi-media rooms but all of our workplaces combine efficient designs with invigorating architectural details that, even without the espresso, will help your mind accelerate.

WRITERS OFFICES

There are many rules for good writing, but for the perfect writer's office space there's only one: combine quiet ambiance with creative motivation. Our writers' suites range from cozy to expansive, from stimulating to serene. Whatever the size or content of our dreamspace, you'll find it at Sunset Studios.

POST PRODUCTION

Our suites provide you with quiet, secure space that give you the freedom to hyper-focus on what's in front of you. We also ensure strong connectivity and high-speed internet to support all your post needs.

The Warner brothers purchased Sunset Bronson in 1919, and later brought the world its first feature length talking film. 100 years later, a host of media luminaries have called Sunset Bronson their home, including Netflix, CBS and KTLA.

5800 SUNSET BLVD LOS ANGELES, CA 9002

From its inception as the original Columbia Pictures to hosting beloved productions like Bewitched, The Golden Girls and Scandal, this studio has provided state-of-the-art production space for historically groundbreaking companies including Technicolor, ABC and HBO.

1438 N GOWER ST LOS ANGELES, CA 9002

Greenhouse-like sound stages originally provided ample light for countless classic films and shows, including I Love Lucy. Today, this charming lot is home to today's leading content creators and provides the perfect environment in which to create your next big hit.

1040 N LAS PALMAS AVE LOS ANGELES, CA 90038

Los Angeles' newest purpose-built studio is private and secure with dramatic hillside views. Designed to be flexible for a variety of content production, including single cam, multi cam, feature film, and virtual production.
